

Tuesday 6 December 2011
(Registration and welcome coffee from 9.00)

EPIM-EPC CONFERENCE
Restrictive migration policies and the role of the media:
the impact on undocumented migrants

Stanhope Hotel
Rue du Commerce 9, 1000 Brussels

PROGRAMME

- 09.30 Introductory remarks
Yves Pascouau, Senior Policy Analyst, European Policy Centre
Olaf Hahn, Chair, European Programme for Integration and Migration (EPIM)
- 09.45 Keynote speech, followed by question and answer session
Cecilia Malmström, European Commissioner for Home Affairs
- 10.45 Coffee break
- 11.15 Views on irregular migration from the European Parliament, including Q&A session
Kinga Göncz MEP, Group of the Progressive Alliance of Socialists & Democrats
Judith Sargentini MEP, the Greens/European Free Alliance group
Renate Weber MEP, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe
TBC, Member of the European Parliament, European People's Party
Debate facilitated by Jacki Davis, Senior Adviser, European Policy Centre
- 13.00 Lunch in the Hotel
- 14.30 Views from practitioners on the role of the media in the migration and integration debate
Don Flynn, Migrant Rights Network and the European Network Against Racism
Marc Janssen, President, Conseil Supérieur de l'Audiovisuel (Belgium)
Marjan Parvand, Journalist, ARD-Aktuell
Anke Schuster, Project Development and Liaison Officer, IOM
Bruno Waterfield, Brussels Correspondent, Daily Telegraph
Debate facilitated by Jacki Davis, Senior Adviser, European Policy Centre
- 16.30 Conference conclusions and final remarks
Antonio Vitorino, former European Commissioner for Justice and Home Affairs
Yves Pascouau, Senior Policy Analyst, European Policy Centre
- 17.00 End

This event is held under the auspices of the EPC's European Migration & Diversity Programme.
It has been co-organised with the European Programme for Integration and Migration (www.epim.info).